FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KELLY CHAPMAN RELEASES NEW CD AT CONCERT AT PICKWICK & FROLIC

Cleveland, OH (July 20, 2009) – National recording artist Kelly Chapman returns to her Cleveland roots to debut her sophomore CD project at a special release concert on Monday, August 10, 2009 at 7 p.m. at Pickwick & Frolic's 4th Street Theater.

Great is Your Grace is an eclectic mix of uplifting music featuring powerful vocals, inspiring lyrics and musical influences from around the world. Although officially categorized as Contemporary Christian Music, the CD offers an untraditional and somewhat unexpected mix of genres. The jazz, pop, rock and hip-hop influences blend together seamlessly by Chapman's pure and beautiful vocals. It may well set a new standard for creativity in the Contemporary Christian Music arena.

Great is Your Grace showcases Chapman's vocal range, lyrical diversity and songwriting skills. She wrote ten of the 13 tracks on the CD and engaged nationally renowned musicians, including pianist Herman Jackson, guitarist Jen Leigh, bassist Larry Kimpel and Grammy Award-winning violinist Charlie Bisharat.

Throughout the project, Chapman sings with emotion as she pours her heart and soul into her music. "I wanted to speak to current challenges we are facing in life, from difficult relationships to the realities of the economic crisis," said Chapman. "For example, the song Bankrupt couldn't be more relevant in today's world." Passionate about the plight of the victims of Hurricane Katrina, Chapman will donate a portion of the proceeds of the New Orleans inspired song, Excuse Me While I Get My Praise On to the New Orleans Mission.

More than anything, Chapman said she wanted to create music that would serve as a source of inspiration and hope. According to Chapman, "Regardless of how your day is going, I think you'll find a song on this CD that will speak to you – and move you. Some people will be inspired to get up and dance. Others may be moved to meditate or pray. Whatever the response, I believe you'll be uplifted and inspired."

Tickets are available at www.tickets2ticketfusion.com at $25 for general admission and $35 for preferred seating. All ticket holders will receive a copy of the new CD, Great is Your Grace.
